Grammar focus

CEFR B1 | Unit 9: Participation | Grammar

Read the explanation, then complete or revise each item.

Name _____ Date _____

Notice the form and meaning

Should have plus a past participle expresses a criticism or better past action. Present perfect passive uses has/have been plus a past participle. So that introduces purpose with a clause.

1. Complete: The notice should have been ___. (remove)

2. Complete: A room has ___ made available.

3. Change to passive: The library has made twenty places available.