Teacher vocabulary guide

CEFR A1 | Unit 4: Neighborhoods | Vocabulary

Use the meanings to check sense, then review the learner's own examples.

1. gate: an opening used to enter an enclosed place
2. library: a place where people read or borrow books
3. office: a place where people do administrative work
4. path: a narrow route for walking
5. Sentence answers vary. Both words must be used in the taught senses and fit the context.
6. entrance means the place where you go into a building; sign means a board or notice that gives information.
7. Accept supported connections to the supplied context. Ask which detail justifies each choice.

Review notes

The eight-card page supports retrieval. Concrete pictures illustrate only the sense defined here. Accept other accurate examples; a familiar spelling alone does not establish the right sense.

Placement

A1-U04 / ESL.VOC. Original supplementary practice. Skill links are proposed for review. Completion does not establish CEFR proficiency.
