CEFR A2 | Unit 2: Plans | Vocabulary

Use the meanings to check sense, then review the learner's own examples.

1. arrangement: a plan agreed with other people
2. available: free to do something
3. confirm: say that a plan is definite
4. cancel: decide that a planned event will not happen
5. Sentence answers vary. Both words must be used in the taught senses and fit the context.
6. offer means say you are willing to do something; instead means in place of something else.
7. Accept supported connections to the supplied context. Ask which detail justifies each choice.

Review notes

The eight-card page supports retrieval. Concrete pictures illustrate only the sense defined here. Accept other accurate examples; a familiar spelling alone does not establish the right sense.

Placement
