Grammar focus

CEFR B2 | Unit 2: Projects | Grammar

Read the explanation, then complete or revise each item.

Name _____ Date _____

Notice the form and meaning

Future perfect describes completion by a future point: will have finished. Future continuous describes work in progress at a future time: will be installing. Use explicit dates to keep updates coherent.

1. Complete: By 13 May, we will have ___ the approved captions. (finish)

2. Complete: Next week, we will be ___ the display. (install)

3. Correct: By Friday, she will has approved it.