Teacher writing review

CEFR B2 | Unit 9: Ethics | Writing

Open responses need qualified review. Use this guide to discuss a useful next revision.

Task and audience

Write a position with a concession and response. Explain a workable permission process and one consequence the participants should understand.

Meaning and evidence

Check the supplied context. The response should preserve relevant facts, conditions and uncertainty. Do not reward an invented claim as evidence.

Organization

Look for an order that helps the intended reader. At early levels, clear linked information is enough; advanced responses need controlled development and cohesion.

Language choices

Discuss one effective word choice and one form to revise. Consider the unit focus: Clefts focus attention: What matters is informed choice. Mixed conditionals connect an unreal past with a present result. Use concessions to acknowledge a point without surrendering the main claim.

Review status

Record feedback as teacher review. A completed draft or self-check does not verify correctness, skill mastery or a CEFR level.
